

Kelly Young

3 Hillcrest Drive, Montpelier, VT 05602 USA
(802) 223-1425 phone; kellyy@woodbury-college.edu email

Education

- Current Master's of Adult Education Program, St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish, Nova Scotia
- 2001 Coady International Institute, St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish, Nova Scotia
Certificates in Emancipatory Adult Education and Participatory Approaches to Development
- 1992 Brown University, Providence, RI
Honors BA and Thesis in Development Studies
- 1989 Friends World College, East Africa Center, Machakos, Kenya
Study in Rural Women's and Community Development, and Swahili Language

Professional Experience

- 1999-present Prevention/Community Development Program, Woodbury College, Montpelier, VT
Associate Director, 2003-present; Core Faculty 1999-2002
- Teach and advise adult learners in prevention and community development methodologies.
 - Consult to partnering community-based organizations regarding community development.
 - Coordinate civic engagement activities and service-learning institutionalization.
 - Advise President as member of the Steering Team of the College, beginning Fall 2003.
- 1999-present Independent Consultant, Montpelier, VT
- Program and curriculum design, facilitation, evaluation and strategic planning services.
- 1994-99 Prevent Child Abuse – Vermont, Montpelier, VT
Program Director, 1997-99, Statewide Program Coordinator, 1994-96
- Planned, managed and evaluated two statewide prevention programs.
 - Trained thousands of Vermont parents, adolescents, educators and other professionals in sexual and violence prevention, and in developing healthy relationships and environments.
 - Collaborated with numerous State, local and nonprofit education and human service organizations on violence prevention approaches and systems.
 - Co-authored a comprehensive health education and sexual violence prevention program for middle school communities (SAFE-T Program).
 - Piloted and evaluated SAFE-T in partnership with youth, education and other professionals.
- 1992-93 Academic Advisor and Community Liaison, Friends World College, Kenya
- Advised international student body on academic and service learning.
 - Worked with school and community members to resolve conflict and collaborate.
- 1991-92 Research Assistant, World Hunger Program and Center for Public Policy, Brown University, Providence, RI
- 1990 Intern: Kamina Nguai Women's Group, Machakos, Kenya
Senator Leahy, Washington, DC

Community Service, Awards, Publications:

- 2004 Excellence in Linking Community & Academics Award, Vermont Campus Compact
- 2001-present Faculty Service-Learning Consultant, Tri-State Campus Compact
- 1999-present Steering Team, Central Vermont Community Partnership, Montpelier, VT
- 1992-94 "Henna in Islamic Society," Kenya Past and Present. Museum Society of Kenya, Nairobi: Issue 24
- 1992 Howard Swearer Public Service Award, Brown University.